FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF SPRINGVALE

Posters have been created for the Christmas Fair. If you have some time to put some up in the community, please take a few.

We can make more if we run out, please spread them around.

Cecelia from the Sanford Schools is coming to speak to us next Sunday, November 16th during worship. She will share what she and a few other ladies are doing at the school, that will include the play and learn group as well as the Thanksgiving boxes. There are other outreaches they are doing too, and she will tell you all about them!

- ◆ Fingerstyle Lessons and Techniques
- ◆ Excerpts from concerts and events

Thank you to Jim Appleby, we are having a free concert
put on by Doyle
Dykes on November 23rd at 4:00.

He will also be playing for us in worship that Sunday morning.

It's that time of year again!! We will have wreaths ready to decorate beginning:
November 16th! We need to get all 5-dozen done by the fair on Saturday, November 22nd!

In the meantime, if you are interested in making some Christmas arrangements the room behind the Keating Room is in high-gear now. So many supplies are just waiting there for you to create a show piece or 2.

There are plenty of supplies if you want to make some arrangements for the Christmas Fair.

If you need help or guidance, please call Maureen at 207-206-5625

Next Sunday, we will kick off our Thanksgiving Outreach Boxes. They will be downstairs in the vestry. Each box will have its own sign-up sheet. Please return your items to the box that you signed up for. Thank you for your generosity.
